The Classic Traveller's New Luxury River Cruise Brochure

The Classic Traveller part of the award winning Titan Travel group has launched a brand new Luxury River Cruises Worldwide Brochure for 2009. The brochure features a collection of their latest range of luxurious river cruising opportunities to destinations worldwide. There are a selection of long and short breaks all on a full board basis, promising something for everyone's tastes and budgets.

Many of the cruises featured in the brochure have had exclusive special offers placed upon them, including the chance to save up to £1250 per person plus many cruises with selected dates have no single supplements on. There is also Classic's additional promise of No Fuel surcharges will be placed on any of their holidays once booked.

The River cruise brochure features 2 new exciting itineraries that include discovering the Waterways of the Tsars that explores Russia's wondrous rivers, canals and lakes as well as taking in St Petersburg and Moscow. Also added is a luxurious 4 star tour of India that encompasses the vibrant cities of Delhi and Jaipur and the beautiful sight of the Taj Mahal and a delightful cruise along the Ganges.

The brochure also offers a selection of cruises that discover Europe's finest towns and historic cities onboard Uniworld's deluxe vessels, the chance to travel in 5 star comfort meandering along the Nile discovering Egypt's ancient relics and treasures as well as journeys further afield with sailings along the mighty Yangtze River – a highlight of any tour to China.

Other additions include a few of The Classic Travellers latest special offers which present the traveller savings of up to £530 per person.
